

CROOK COUNTY COMMUNITY JUVENILE SERVICES DIVERSION CONTRACT

GRADUATED CONSEQUENCES

Timeliness: Home, School, and Diversion:

If I am on time for all my Diversion appointments and classes, on time for every class at school (no tardies, no absences), on time for every curfew, on time with every written assignment, have no behavior issues at school, have all my grades at a “C” or above, am not using tobacco, and have no positive drug tests for one month, I will receive one incentive of my choice from the incentive list.

Keeping appointments with my Juvenile Services Officer and being on time for class (Corrective Thinking, Jobs Readiness, TEG/TAP):

I will attend all appointments and classes and I will arrive for all appointments and classes on time or early. If I need to miss, it is my responsibility to call my JSO at least one day before the appointment and reschedule.

If I am ever late to an appointment or a class, I will stay late and write the phrase, “I will do whatever it takes to be on time,” 250 times.

If I am ever late again, I will be given the opportunity to be on time for follow-up appointments for the next five days. On each of those days, I will write the phrase “I will do whatever it takes to be on time” 75 times.

If I am thirty minutes late, it shall be considered a missed appointment.

If I miss an appointment or a class, without being excused, I will write a formal apology and will make a formal apology to the staff of Crook County Community Juvenile Services.

If I miss a second appointment or class, I will write a letter to the prosecuting attorney stating what I will do to take greater responsibility.

If I miss a third appointment or class, this diversion contract will be terminated.

Curfew:

If I am ever away from my home and I see that I will not be home before curfew, for whatever reason, I will notify my parent(s)/guardian(s) and my JSO.

For every 30 minutes, or portion thereof, that I am late to arrive home, I will lose all driving privileges for one week. (This applies even though I notified my guardians and my JSO)

If I am ever late and I fail to notify my guardians, I will be required to be at my home with no friends present, unless I am at school, at work, or participating in extracurricular activities: one week for a first offense or three weeks for a second offense. (This consequence may be enforced through the use of electronic monitoring.)

On a third offense, this diversion contact will be terminated.

School (Absences):

If I have an unexcused absence from school, I will participate in after-school study hall 2 hours for every hour missed.

If I have a second unexcused absence from school, I will participate in after-school study hall 3 hours for every hour missed.

If I have a third unexcused absence from school, this contract may be terminated.

School (Tardies):

For each tardy, I will perform one additional hour of community service.

Written assignments:

Every written assignment I receive will have a stated deadline. For every day an assignment is late, I will write an additional 50 words.

Contact with my Juvenile Services Officer:

If I fail to respond to messages left for me from my Juvenile Services Officer by curfew time, or if I fail to call my Juvenile Services Officer immediately following a contact with law enforcement:

First offense: I will write "I will stay in contact with my Juvenile Services Officer" 250 times.

Second offense: I will call my JSO twice each day (at 4:00 pm and at 8:00 pm) for seven days.

Third offense: I will participate in a meeting with my family and my JSO.

Community Service:

Under my contract, I am required to perform _____ hours of community service.

In order to receive credit for community service, I will perform my duties while supervised by a responsible adult who will keep an accurate log of my service and I will present that written log to my Juvenile Services Officer before credit is given.

If my performance while doing community service results in my dismissal, I will do an additional two hours of service for each dismissal and I will receive no credit for any work done on that day.

Use of illegal substances:

If I ever test positive for the use of alcohol or any other illegal substance:

I will meet with my Juvenile Services Officer every day for one week and be tested again at the end of that week.

If I test positive a second time, I will be required to be at my home with no friends present, unless I am at school, at work, or participating in extracurricular activities: one week for a second offense or three weeks for a third offense. (This consequence may be enforced through the use of electronic monitoring.)

On a fourth offense, this diversion contact will be terminated.

Tobacco: If I continue to use tobacco, I will enroll in the Wyoming Quit Line. I will meet with my Juvenile Services Officer twice a week and we will spend time together on the Quit Line website.

If my JSO believes that I am not making a good-faith effort to quit substance use, my diversion contract will be terminated.

School Behavior

If I receive a negative report from the school for behavior problems, I will write a letter of apology to everyone who was affected by my actions.

For the second negative report, I will write a letter of apology to everyone who was affected by my actions, and I will participate in a face-to-face meeting, facilitated by Crook County Community Juvenile Services, attended by everyone affected by my behavior, and I will follow the recommendations made by the group.
