

5-3-16

The culverts have been added to the detours, so there will be no more road closures. The project is still running on schedule. There will be more activity around bridge 4 next week, as concrete pouring will begin. The first cattle guard off the interstate will be repaired soon, watch for flaggers and traffic control there.